Meeting Purpose

Review conference progress, CGS updates, and future planning.

Key Takeaways

- Baton Rouge Conference on Track: Plenary speakers are confirmed, and registration is strong (169 total, 141 paid, ~$10k in sponsorships). The hotel rate issue is being resolved.
- CGS Strategic Plan Underway: The CGS President is launching a strategic plan via surveys and focus groups. CSGS members will provide feedback, advocating for broad participation beyond deans.
- AI Panel Focus Shift: The Baton Rouge AI panel will move beyond ethics to explore new topics: AI's impact on the job market, fraud, and environmental sustainability.
- New Threat Identified: The committee discussed the emerging risk of "academic social media influencers" publicly criticizing university dissertations, raising concerns about institutional reputation.

Topics

CGS Annual Meeting Debrief

- Overall Assessment: The CGS meeting was seen as a significant improvement over past years, with more relevant content and a highly engaged president in Chevelle Newsome.
- Key Learnings for Baton Rouge:
 - Panel Moderation: Effective moderation is critical. The CGS panel with prepared questions was highly successful; an unmoderated panel was not.

- Content Quality: Avoid overused buzzwords ("innovation," "new"). Focus on truly novel ideas and data, like the SMU economics presentation on the value of graduate education.
- Networking: High hotel costs ($22 drinks) inhibit casual networking.
- CGS Strategic Planning:
 - Process: President Newsome is launching a 6-month needs assessment via surveys and focus groups to inform a new strategic plan, with results due next December.
 - CSGS Feedback: The committee will advocate for broad focus group participation (deans, associate deans, staff) and suggest virtual meetings to improve feedback from CGS committees.

Baton Rouge Conference: Progress & Logistics

- Program: All plenary speakers are confirmed. CGS President Chevelle Newsome will speak for 30 minutes on the CGS strategic plan.
- Registration & Finances:
 - Total Registered: 169
 - Paid: 141 (105 attendees, 36 3MT students)
 - Sponsorships: 4 sponsors, ~$10,000 raised
 - Deadline: The early bird registration deadline is this Friday (one-time extension).
- Hotel Issues:
 - Rate: Some users are seeing a $179 rate instead of the negotiated ~$147. Peter is working with the hotel to fix the booking link.
 - Availability: Rooms are still available.

2027 Conference: Northern Virginia

- Venue: Renaissance Hotel, Arlington, VA.
- Contract: The contract is pending. Peter is negotiating a reduced parking rate for attendees.

- Dates: Feb 18–20, 2027. The committee approved posting these dates on the website immediately.

Baton Rouge AI Panel: New Directions

- Goal: Move beyond the "ethics of AI" topic to explore new, actionable issues.
- Proposed Topics:
 - Job Market Impact: How AI affects graduate employment and creates training gaps.
 - Fraud & Integrity: AI-generated publications, credentials, and other academic fraud.
 - AI as a Tool: Using AI for administrative tasks (e.g., dissertation compliance) to repurpose staff for higher-value work.
- Moderation: Laurence Bray will moderate. Peter Harries is the backup panelist if Debra Steward is unavailable.

Committee Updates

- Awards:
 - Faculty Mentoring: 15 nominations are under review.
 - Contribution: Sharon McGee's nomination was located and moved to the correct folder.
 - Student Awards: Initial ratings are due Dec 17.
- Nominating Committee: The call for nominations for the Executive Committee, President-elect, and Treasurer will be sent today.
